

When I was 2 years old a bird pooped on me
Some say that's good luck
But I didn't feel lucky
I was born in New York City the city of lights, the city never sleeps at night
My family and I moved to New Windsor when I was 3, the rural city that's quiet and does sleep at night
I don't remember much about my old house but I heard it was small
I have 2 older brothers and a half sister from my dad
I'm more of a momma's girl, my dad gets jealous sometimes
My parents think i'm strong but I don't think so
A year ago I had surgery on my back now there's a huge 13 inch scar there
When it comes to my scar I'm very discreet and not really a fan about it, but will come to appreciate when older
I thought bird poop was suppose to be good luck ?
I'm really tall and have big feet
I watched my brother get kicked out my house
One of my biggest fear are bugs especially the ones that can fly
I am the youngest in my family which means I get spoiled a lot, my brothers hate it
When I was 4 I got my fingers stuck in the car door, I balled my eyes out for hours
What is that they saw about bird poop and good luck ?
I love watching Netflix tv shows but I hate when they end, I feel my heartbreak a little Before I had my surgery I had to wear a brace to bed I hated it
When I was six I watched my older half sister get into a fight with my dad, my brothers had to take me into the other room they didn't think I knew what was happening but I did Is bird poop even good luck ?
